

Charity organization Serbs for Serbs from Montenegro helped a seven-member family Radovanic who lives in a refugee part Konik in Podgorica. We visited them in September this year. The parents and

Vojin

Slavica

have five children,

Milena

(19),

Marijana

(17),

Mishko

(16),

Magdalena

(16) and

Miljan

(10). Radovanovic family are refugees from Pec and from 1999 they have been living in this refugee part of the city of Podgorica - Konik. The family was provided with a closet, gas bottle, battery with a charger for the cotton candy device, books and school supplies for the youngest family member Miljan and six meters of wood for the upcoming winter.
